Congress Debates Consumer Prices

CAPITOL HILL (UPI) - Heated discussion marked the House floor today as Congress debated the state of consumer prices. Many congressmen complained that the average American just can't afford a new house at today's price of $70,300.00.

Split along party lines, many Republicans felt that $1.25 for a half gallon of milk was a solid consumer bargain, while Democrats pointed out that $2.01 for a pound of bacon was too expensive for many. Since the average U.S. worker now earns a record annual wage of $21,361.00, many members of the House felt that seventy-one cents for a loaf of bread was quite affordable.

Vice-President George Bush noted that while ten pounds of potatoes had risen to $1.80, he said that the American public had, in 1983, more buying power than ever before.
